Group Leader Responsibilities

The main responsibility of a Group Leader is to gather people who would like to travel with you on a Holiday Vacations tour. The more people who travel with you, the bigger your savings will be! Discounts begin at ten people and you have the opportunity to travel free with 14 paid guests. While on tour, your only responsibility is to ensure a sense of community among all of your travelers. Other than that, the Tour Director will take great care of everyone so you can soak in every extraordinary moment of discovering a new destination while creating special memories with your group.

Pick a Tour and Departure Date

Group Leaders generally pick a tour and departure date after speaking with our Group Travel Coordinator. We can then verify that we have enough space available and discuss whether you wish to travel free with 14 paid guests or provide an additional discount to those who accompany you.

Start Prospecting – Identify Who’s in Your Network

You already have a pipeline of opportunities in your network that’s bigger than you may imagine – and they all know people who would love to travel too. Share your tour with:

- » Family members and friends
- » Religious organizations
- » Clubs or hobby groups
- » Professional or fraternal organizations
- » Retirement communities and associations

Deploy Your Marketing Efforts

There are a variety of communication techniques you can use to get people interested in traveling. Whether you choose phone calls, personal emails, social media posts, or another method, our team provides you with a variety of tools to encourage success.

When ready, your group will make their reservations by calling our Group Travel Coordinator at 866-754-7119 during business hours of 8 AM to 5 PM (CST) Monday through Friday. You may also email the information to us, using a link we provide, which allows our team to make the reservation and then call back to confirm details.

Consider Hosting a Travel Party

Some Group Leaders invite potential guests to attend a travel party where you can distribute your custom full-color brochure, watch an informational video about your tour, and build excitement. In some cases, a virtual party on Zoom works well too. There are a lot of fantastic ways to create awareness and engagement!

Q: How hard is it to get a group together?

A: Everyone's social circles are different, but it's likely that you already have a list of prospects whether they be friends and family or people in your community who have something in common. We find that once the word gets out, interest builds quickly!

Q: Will there be other guests traveling on my tour date?

A: It depends on the size of your group, the destination, and a few other things. Our tours are generally designed to have around 40 guests and each requires a different minimum to operate. Our Group Travel Coordinator can share the circumstances specific to your tour date.

Q: Can my group fly together?

A: If you are departing and returning to the same home city, we will make every effort to have your group fly together. We have an expert Group Travel team to handle these requests, but it's important to know that airline rules and capacity are constantly changing.

Q: How do reservations work?

A: Once established as a Group Leader, each of your guests can make their reservation by contacting our Group Travel Coordinator during business hours of 8 AM to 5 PM (CST) Monday through Friday. Alternatively, we will provide a link where you can input guest information and email us, so we can create the reservation and call to confirm details.

Q: When are travel documents available?

A: All guests receive our Guest Travel Booklet 10-14 days prior to departure. This contains a tour itinerary, airfare and hotel details, helpful information to prepare for the tour, a name badge, luggage tag, and more. Beginning 21 days prior to departure, everyone can access this information electronically on our Guest Portal and the Holiday Traveler Mobile App, where you can also chat with your Tour Director, create digital postcards to share with loved ones back home, and much more.
